Pop has gone up to the barn, two of the drinking cups overflowed and the barn is flooded so I suppose he will be up there an hour or two.

Pop and I are going over to Aunt Mame's sale at 10 A.M. - guess this is the last of Grandma's things. Hattie Gardner called me last week and told me about it. Russell is or has rented a few rooms for her and suppose he will board with her. We may stay at Lois' home for supper.

I took my first lesson in driving the Ford with the shifts last night. Pop's Ford has been over to Stephens being fixed so we started after it about 5. Pop made me back the Ford out and I drove to Kingsley. Turned around after struggling out twice and drove to Lincolnton where my first lesson finished. We could not imagine what such a crowd was there for and I refused to turn around and show off for their benefit so Helen came to my rescue. It seems they were going to have a boxing match in the garage. Helen said I did fine did not scrape any gears but Pop said I did fine until I got so
